

UNITED STATES POSTAL INSPECTION SERVICE

REWARD

Up to $50,000

Armed Robbery of Two USPS Letter Carriers

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service is offering a reward of up to $50,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the suspects who robbed two U.S. Postal Service (USPS) letter carriers at gunpoint on December 7, 2022. The first robbery took place at 2:50 p.m. near the 2500 block of Yorktown Street, Houston, TX 77056. The second robbery occurred near the 900 block of Century Plaza, Houston, TX 77073, at 5:10 p.m.

The suspects are described as Black males, late teens to early 20's, slender builds, approximately 6' and 6'02" tall, respectively, both wearing wave caps.

The suspects fled the scene in a black, 4-door Nissan Altima, which they car-jacked earlier in the day. The vehicle was recovered later that day on the 2300 block of Bammelwood Dr, Houston, TX 77014.

Armed robbery of a USPS Letter Carrier is punishable under Title 18 of United States Code, Section 2114, by up to 25 years in federal prison and/or significant fines.

TAKE NO ACTION TO APPREHEND THESE INDIVIDUALS YOURSELF

If you have any information about this incident, please contact the Houston Division U.S. Postal Inspectors at 713-238-4429 or 1-877-876-2455 (say "Law Enforcement") and Reference Case No. 3924819-ROBB. All information will be kept strictly confidential.