

UNITED STATES POSTAL INSPECTION SERVICE

REWARD

Up to $50,000

ARMED ROBBERY OF USPS LETTER CARRIER

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service (USPIS) is offering a reward of up to $50,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the subjects connected to the armed robbery of a United States Postal Service (USPS) letter carrier. The incident took place at approximately 12:13 p.m. on Tuesday, July 18, 2023, just past the entrance of Wakefield Apartments, 29090 Tiffany Drive E., Southfield, MI 48034.

The subjects are described as Black males, approximately 5'8" tall with slim builds, and in their late teens. The subjects were described as wearing dark-colored hoodies and ski masks. The weapon was described as a pistol version of the AK-47 known as a "Draco." After committing the robbery, the suspects fled on foot running through the apartment complex.

Postal Inspectors would like to identify the occupants of a vehicle observed in the vicinity of the robbery. The vehicle appears to be a newer model Mercedes Benz sedan, possibly model S 580, in silver or gray and equipped with a moon roof.
