

UNITED STATES POSTAL INSPECTION SERVICE

NEWS RELEASE

DATE: 03/27/2026

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Brian Benson
TITLE: Postal Inspector / Public Information Officer
PHONE: (303) 313-5397
EMAIL: babenson@uspis.gov

Customers of Just Send It Mail Agency in Silverthorne, CO, Urged to Respond to Investigation of Possible Mail Mishandling

DENVER, CO — The Denver Division of the U.S. Postal Inspection Service is conducting a criminal investigation of a matter involving the delay of mail delivery to customers of a commercial mail receiving agency (CMRA) in Silverthorne, CO.

The Postal Inspection Service is investigating mail that was either destined to or originating from Just Send It, located at 358 Blue River Parkway, Unit E, Silverthorne, CO 80498, from 2021 to present. The mail was believed to have been handled in a manner inconsistent with U.S. Postal Service regulations governing CMRAs.

If you were or currently are a customer of this establishment and believe you have not received mail that was intended for you, or if you deposited outgoing mail at this establishment that never made it to its intended recipient, please contact the Postal Inspection Service's Denver Division Mail Theft Team at (303) 313-5311 or via DDMTMA@uspis.gov.

###

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service serves to protect against and prevent criminal attacks on U.S. Postal Service employees, customers, and infrastructure. U.S. postal inspectors enforce more than 200 federal laws that preserve public trust in the U.S. Mail.